

Katherine Hendricks and Yale Lewis Nominated to be Masters of the Bench for the Seattle Intellectual Property American Inn of Court

Katherine Hendricks and Yale Lewis have been nominated, as prominent members of the Seattle intellectual property bar, to join the newly formed Seattle Intellectual Property American Inn of Court as “Masters of the Bench,” the highest category of Inn membership. The Seattle Intellectual Property Inn of Court group will be made up of no more than 80 judges, lawyers, law professors and law students who will meet monthly to hold programs and discussions on matters of interest in the practice of intellectual property law. The Inn’s mission is to foster excellence in professionalism, ethics, civility, and legal skills.
